Next up : lunch (12:30-1:30pm)

Kristin Bott
@kristin (Slack)

Nehalem Bay,

toes, found in Aust

emulate. - emulatively

li, ade, la sa emolette emulator, con bellete

emulate, em

A variable is a quantity, quality, or property that rm of the French employe, one who you can measure. Employed especially, a clerk joint ho works for an employer or master; a clerk, workman, or other ose signification tends to impress specially person working for salary or wages.andience; a peculiar imemployer, em-ploi'er, n. One who mphysema, em-fi-se ma, n. [Gr. emphysao, to in-

A value is the state of a variable when you measure it. The value of a variable may change from measurement to measurement. and poison.] To poison; to taint with poison or venomer.

poison or venom; to embitter; to emporium, em·pori·um, n. [L., from Gr. emporion, an emporium or